

House Speaker Bryce Edgmon's Legislative Update

Volume XII, No. 17

May 11th, 2018

Adjournment Near--Stay Tuned

We are on track to bring the 2018 legislative session to a successful conclusion very soon. As I write this, votes on the final versions of the Operating and Capital Budgets are still pending, and many bills by individual lawmakers are passing across both the House and Senate floors.

It is my hope that the progress we have made this week results in adjournment of the session before the weekend is out.

As soon as the dust settles, I will send out a session wrap-up detailing the work we've undertaken this year for safer and healthier communities and to ensure the quality of the services and programs the state provides.

Mindy and Nathan Lopez are the daughter and son-in-law of the late Thomas Madole, who gave his life as a Village Public Safety Officer in the community of Manokotak in 2013. Following Officer Madole's death, I passed legislation allowing properly trained VPSOs to carry firearms. It was my honor to visit with Mindy, Nathan, and their daughter Cadence when they came by the Capitol Thursday.

On Deck Next Week...

Working hard toward adjournment.
