Subject: Redistricting Appointment

Dear President Giessel,

Article VI, §8(b) of the Alaska Constitution addresses composition of the Redistricting Board and provides that "...the presiding officer of the house... shall appoint one member of the board." It further requires that the first two appointees be named by the Governor and that at least one appointee must reside in each judicial district.

With the Governor's appointment of two Alaska residents to membership on the Redistricting Board, one from Judicial District 3, and the second from Judicial District 1, and your selection of an Alaska resident from Judicial District 4, please accept this memorandum as notification that I have selected Nicole Borromeo of Anchorage, a resident of Alaska's Third Judicial District, as my appointee to the Redistricting Board.

Sincerely,

Representative Bryce Edgmon
Alaska Speaker of the House
